

COVID-19 Restrictions

ACT

What you can do from 1 September

Some restrictions have eased. With social distancing in place and with a maximum of 100 people in an enclosed space, you can visit cafes & restaurants, gyms, galleries, museums, outdoor attractions, campgrounds, beauty salons and play indoor social sport. You can still shop for essential & non-essential items, seek medical care or safety, comply with court orders, exercise outdoors, attend school, work, places of worship, house inspections & auctions.

Physical Distancing

Always stay about 2 big steps away from other people you don't live with.
Wash your hands often and don't touch your face.
Stay home if unwell.
Enough space for 1 person per 4 square metres.
Some businesses may request your details for contact tracing.

Elders & older people

You can care for Elders & older people, but you should keep social distancing. Limited visits possible to aged care facilities.
You can visit a spouse, close relative who resides in an aged care facility<sup>1</sup>. However, you must have an up-to-date vaccination against influenza (the flu) when visiting an aged care facility.<sup>2</sup>

Police

Police could give you a warning or fine or possibly arrest you if you are not following the rules and you are aged 10 years or over.

Responding to police

You need to provide your name and address. You don't need to say any more. You can film your interaction with police in a public place if you are concerned about your rights.

I can't pay my rent

Get in touch with your landlord. Temporary laws may protect you from eviction.

Visiting family

There are no restrictions on visiting family but physical distancing must be followed.

Sorry Business & funerals

Up to 100 people can attend a funeral. Social distancing must be followed.

Meeting in public

All indoor and outdoor gatherings can have up to 100 people, where physical distancing can be followed.
