

2022 NAOMI WILLIAMS WIRADJURI POETRY PRIZE

The Naomi Williams Wiradjuri Poetry Prize is named in honour of Nay who was a strong, proud Wiradjuri woman from the Brungle/Tumut area of NSW.

Nay loved to write poetry about the Tumut river, her family and all the elements of love that she treasured.

This poetry prize aims to support other Wiradjuri writers and encourage more poetry about life on Wiradjuri country.

THEME

Respect, Recognition and Reconciliation

CATEGORIES

Adult: Wiradjuri writers 25 years and over

Youth: Wiradjuri writers 13 to 24 years

Kids: All writers 12 years and under living or learning on Wiradjuri country

NEXT STEPS

Please include the following information in your submission:

- Title of poem
- Category
- Name
- Date of birth

For the kids category, please also provide a name, contact number and permission from your parent or guardian.

Email your poem to poetry@justice.org.au
by 17 June 2022.

WINNERS

Winners will be announced during NAIDOC week
from 3 – 10 July 2022

Winners in the Adult and Youth category will receive $300

Winners in the Kids category will receive $100

Highly commended entries will receive a $50 book voucher

For more information, please email us at poetry@justice.org.au or call us at the National Justice Project office on (02) 9514 4440.

PROUD SPONSORS

The Kilby/Penrith Family, Aunty Caroline Hughes, National Justice Project, Heiss Family and Bond-Williams Family.